Firm Resume

Jonathan Tycko and Hassan Zavareei founded Tycko & Zavareei LLP in 2002 when they left a large national firm to form a private public interest law firm. Since then, a wide range of clients have trusted the firm with their most difficult problems. Those clients include individuals fighting for their rights, tenants' associations battling to preserve decent and affordable housing, consumers seeking redress for unfair business practices, whistleblowers exposing fraud and corruption, and non-profit entities and businesses facing difficult litigation.

The firm's practice focuses on complex litigation, with a particular emphasis on consumer and other types of class actions, and qui tam and False Claims Act litigation. In its class action practice, the firm represent consumers who have been victims of corporate wrongdoing. The firm's attorneys bring a unique perspective to such litigation because many of them trained at major national defense firms where they obtained experience representing corporate defendants in such cases. This unique perspective enables the firm to anticipate and successfully counter the strategies commonly employed by corporate counsel defending class action litigation. Tycko & Zavareei LLP's attorneys have successfully obtained class certification, been appointed class counsel, and obtained approval of class action settlements with common funds totaling over $500 million.

Tycko & Zavareei LLP's twenty-four attorneys graduated from some of the nation's finest law schools, including Harvard Law School, Columbia Law School, Duke University School of Law, UC Berkeley School of Law, UC Hastings College of the Law, Georgetown Law, the University of Michigan Law School, and the University of Miami School of Law. They have served in prestigious clerkships for federal and state trial and appellate judges and have worked for low-income clients through competitive public interest fellowships. The firm's diversity makes it a leader amongst its peers, and the firm actively and successfully recruits attorneys who are women, people of color, and LGBTQ. To support its mission of litigating in the public interest, Tycko & Zavareei LLP offers a unique public interest fellowship for recent law graduates. Tycko & Zavareei LLP's attorneys practice in state and federal courts across the nation.

Hassan A. Zavareei

Partner

hzavareei@tzlegal.com

Mr. Zavareei has devoted the last two decades to recovering hundreds of millions of dollars on behalf of consumers and workers. He has served in leadership roles in dozens of class action cases and has been appointed Class Counsel on behalf of numerous litigation and settlement classes. An accomplished and experienced attorney, Mr. Zavareei has litigated in state and federal courts across the nation in a wide range of practice areas; tried several cases to verdict; and successfully argued numerous appeals, including in the D.C. Circuit, the Fourth Circuit, and the Fifth Circuit. He also recently argued before the United States Supreme Court.

After graduating from UC Berkeley School of Law, Mr. Zavareei joined the Washington, D.C. office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. There, he managed the defense of a nationwide class action brought against a major insurance carrier, along with other complex civil matters. In 2002, Mr. Zavareei founded Tycko & Zavareei LLP with his partner Jonathan Tycko.

Mr. Zavareei has served as lead counsel or co-counsel in dozens of class actions involving deceptive business practices, defective products, and/or privacy. He has been appointed to leadership roles in multiple cases. As Lead Counsel in an MDL against a financial services company that provided predatory debit cards to college students, Mr. Zavareei spearheaded a fifteen-million-dollar recovery for class members. He is currently serving as Co-Lead Counsel in consolidated proceedings against Fifth Third Bank, and on the Plaintiffs' Executive Committee in MDL litigation against TD Bank.

As Co-Lead Counsel in Farrell v. Bank of America, a case challenging Bank of America's punitive overdraft fees, Mr. Zavareei secured a class settlement valued at $66.6 million in cash and debt relief, together with injunctive relief forcing the bank to change a practice that will save millions of low-income consumers approximately $1.2 billion in overdraft fees. In his Order granting final approval, Judge Lorenz of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of California described the outcome as a "remarkable" accomplishment achieved through "tenacity and great skill."

Mr. Zavareei is a highly sought after speaker on class action litigation and has taught numerous CLE courses across the country.

Andrea Gold has spent her legal career advocating for consumers, employees, and whistleblowers. Ms. Gold has litigated numerous complex cases, including through trial. Her extensive litigation experience benefits the firm's clients in both national class action cases as well as in qui tam whistleblower litigation.

She has served as trial counsel in two lengthy jury trials.

In her class action practice, Ms. Gold has successfully defended dispositive motions, navigated complex discovery, worked closely with leading experts, and obtained contested class certification. Her class action cases have involved, amongst other things, unlawful bank fees, product defects, violations of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, and deceptive advertising and sales practices.

Ms. Gold also has significant civil rights experience. She has represented individuals and groups of employees in employment litigation, obtaining substantial recoveries for employees who have faced discrimination, harassment, and other wrongful conduct. In addition, Ms. Gold has appellate experience in both state and federal court.

Prior to joining Tycko & Zavareei LLP, Ms. Gold was a Skadden fellow. The Skadden Fellowship Foundation was created by Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, one of the nation's top law firms, to support the work of new attorneys at public interest organizations around the country.

Ms. Gold earned her law degree from the University of Michigan Law School, where she was an associate editor of the Journal of Law Reform, co-President of the Law Students for Reproductive Choice, and a student attorney at the Family Law Project clinical program. Ms. Gold graduated with high distinction from the University of Michigan Ross School of Business in 2001, concentrating her studies in Finance and Marketing.

In his 29 years of practice, Jonathan Tycko has represented a wide range of clients, including individuals, Fortune 500 companies, privately-held business, and non-profit associations, in both trial and appellate courts around the country. Although he continues to handle a variety of cases, his current practice is focused primarily on helping whistleblowers expose fraud and corruption through qui tam litigation under the False Claims Act and other similar whistleblower statutes. Mr. Tycko's whistleblower clients have brought to light hundreds of millions of dollars in fraud in cases involving healthcare, government contracts, and customs duties, banking and tax. He is a frequent author and speaker on issues relating to whistleblower cases.

Prior to founding Tycko & Zavareei LLP in 2002, Mr. Tycko was with Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, one of the nation's top law firms. He received his law degree in 1992 from Columbia University Law School, and earned a B.A. degree, with honors, in 1989 from The Johns Hopkins University. After graduating from law school, Mr. Tycko served for two years as law clerk to Judge Alexander Harvey, II, of the United States District Court for the District of Maryland.

In addition to his private practice, Mr. Tycko is an active participant in other law-related and community activities. He has served as Co-Chair of the Education Committee of the Taxpayers Against Fraud Education Fund, charged with planning the premier annual conference of whistleblower attorneys and their counterparts at the United States Department of Justice and other government agencies. He has taught as an Adjunct Professor at the George Washington University Law School. He is a former member and Chairperson of the Rules of Professional Conduct Review Committee of the District of Columbia Bar, where he helped draft the ethics rules governing members of the bar. And Mr. Tycko was a long-time member of the Board of Trustees of Studio Theatre, one of the D.C. area's top non-profit theaters.

Mr. Tycko is admitted to practice before the courts of the District of Columbia, Maryland and New York, as well as before numerous federal courts around the country.

In 20 years of practice, Sabita J. Soneji has developed extensive experience in litigation and legal policy at both the federal and state level and a passion for fighting consumer fraud. Now a Partner in Tycko & Zavareei LLP's Oakland office, she focuses on consumer protection class actions and whistleblower litigation. In addition to her success with novel Telephone Consumer Protection cases, False Claims Act cases involving insurance fraud, and deceptive and false advertising cases, Ms. Soneji serves in leadership on multi-district litigation against Juul, for its manufacture and marketing to youth of an addictive nicotine product. Ms. Soneji also successfully represents consumers harmed by massive data breaches and by corporate practices that collect and monetize user data without consent. She serves as head of the firm's Privacy and Data Breach Group.

Ms. Soneji began that work during her time with the United States Department of Justice, as Senior Counsel to the Assistant Attorney General. In that role, she oversaw civil and criminal prosecution of various forms of financial fraud that arose in the wake of the 2008 recession. For that work, Ms. Soneji partnered with other federal agencies, state attorneys' general, and consumer advocacy groups. Beyond that affirmative work, Ms. Soneji worked to defend various federal programs, including the Affordable Care Act in nationwide litigation.

Ms. Soneji has extensive civil litigation experience from her four years with international law firm, her work as an Assistant United States Attorney in the Northern District of California, and from serving as Deputy County Counsel for Santa Clara County, handling civil litigation on behalf of the County including regulatory, civil rights, and employment matters. She has successfully argued motions and conducted trials in both state and federal court and negotiated settlements in complex multi-party disputes.

Early in her career, Ms. Soneji clerked for the Honorable Gladys Kessler on the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, during which she assisted the judge in overseeing the largest civil case in American history, United States v. Phillip Morris, et al., a civil RICO case brought against major tobacco manufacturers for fraud in the marketing, sale, and design of cigarettes. The opinion in that case paved the way for Congress to authorize FDA regulation of cigarettes.

Ms. Soneji is a graduate of the University of Houston, summa cum laude, with degrees in Math and Political Science, and Georgetown University Law Center, magna cum laude.

Kristen G. Simplicio

Partner

202.973.0900

Kristen G. Simplicio has devoted her career to representing victims of illegal debt collection practices, false advertising, and other fraudulent and unfair corporate schemes. Prior to joining Tycko & Zavareei LLP's D.C. office in 2020, she spent ten years at a boutique class action firm in California.

Ms. Simplicio is currently representing plaintiffs in several cases in the education field. She is serving as counsel for plaintiffs in a case against a prominent university and its for-profit recruiting partner over a decade-long advertising campaign centering on the school's artificially inflated U.S. News rankings. She is also currently representing plaintiffs in a RICO suit against an online for-profit university over a deceptive scheme to enroll students into fraudulent professional degree programs.

In addition to her work in the education space, Ms. Simplicio has represented plaintiffs in a wide variety of areas. For example, she was the lead associate on RICO case on behalf of small business owners against 18 defendants in the credit card processing industry. In connection with that case, she obtained a preliminary injunction halting an illegal $10 million debt collection scheme, and later, helped to secure refunds and changed practices for the victims. She has also secured a number of victories on behalf of homeowners as a result of her work representing plaintiffs in over a dozen cases filed around the country against mortgage loan servicers over fees charged in violation of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act and related state statutes.

Ms. Simplicio graduated cum laude from American University, Washington College of Law in 2007. She holds a bachelor's degree from McGill University. She began her legal career at the United States Department of Labor, where she advised on regulations pertaining to group health insurance plans. Before and during law school, Ms. Simplicio worked for other plaintiffs' law firms.

Ms. Simplicio serves as the D.C. Co-Chair of the National Association of Consumer Advocates. She is admitted to practice in California, the District of Columbia, and the Supreme Court of the United States.

Bringing 30 years of practice, knowledge, and expertise as a former prosecutor in a senior leadership position at the United States Department of Justice, Renée Brooker is now representing whistleblowers. While at the Department of Justice for over two decades, Ms. Brooker was responsible for billions of dollars in recoveries under whistleblower laws. As an accomplished and experienced attorney, Ms. Brooker has advised and represented whistleblowers under the False Claims Act (FCA), the Anti-Kickback Statute and Stark Law, FIRREA (bank fraud, mail, and wire fraud), the Financial Institutions Anti-Fraud Enforcement Act (FIAFE), and the Whistleblower Programs of the SEC, the CFTC, and the IRS.

As Assistant Director within the Civil Division of the United States Department of Justice, Ms. Brooker was responsible for sizeable recoveries and successful judgments under the False Claims Act, FIRREA, and civil RICO in almost every industry: pharmaceutical, health care, defense, financial services, government procurement, small business, insurance, tobacco products, and higher education.

Ms. Brooker received her law degree in 1990 from Georgetown University Law Center, and a B.S. degree in 1987 from Temple University. After graduating from Georgetown, Ms. Brooker served as a Law Clerk to Judge Noël Kramer in the District of Columbia for one year before joining the United States Department of Education as an attorney. Ms. Brooker was hired as part of the enforcement response to Congressional investigations of fraud in federal student aid programs affecting consumers and taxpayers. Prior to joining Tycko & Zavareei LLP in 2020, Ms. Brooker worked at another prominent whistleblower firm where she advised and represented whistleblowers while expanding the firm's whistleblower practice. Ms. Brooker also served as a member of the United States Department of Justice-appointed Independent Corporate Compliance Monitor and Auditor for Volkswagen under its Plea Agreement and Consent Decree with the United States Department of Justice.

Bringing 16 years of complex litigation experience practice, Eva Gunasekera, the former Senior Counsel for Health Care Fraud at the United States Department of Justice, is now representing whistleblowers. Ms. Gunasekera has spent the better part of her career enforcing the False Claims Act and the Stark and Anti-Kickback laws.

Highly strategic, Ms. Gunasekera has many notable successes under her belt, sizeable recoveries under the False Claims Act, and has held companies accountable for fraudulent conduct that harmed important government programs such as Medicare and Medicaid. With deep health care fraud expertise, she has investigated, litigated, and settled cases involving all federal health care programs (Medicare, Medicaid, TRICARE, FEHB). Ms. Gunasekera is an expert on analyzing complex health care data sets, including Medicare and Medicaid payment data and trends, to identify potentially fraudulent practices. She has enforced anti-fraud laws and represented whistleblowers across industries: pharmaceutical manufacturers, health care providers, hospitals, physicians, physician groups, laboratories, managed care, pharmacies, hospice and nursing home providers, financial institutions, government suppliers, automotive, small businesses, and defense contractors. Many of her investigations involved parallel criminal proceedings and compliance and whistleblower programs of health care organizations, including those subjected to Corporate Integrity Agreements and oversight by Independent Review Organizations, as required by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Inspector General (HHS-OIG).

After graduating with her Master's in Public Administration from Ohio University, and from Georgetown University Law Center, Ms. Gunasekera practiced law at two international law firms. She acted as second chair during administrative trials and handled complex commercial litigation. Ms. Gunasekera also played a significant role on the team that represented the Enron Creditors Recovery Corp in the bankruptcy proceeding, successfully returning billions of dollars to creditors in the wake of the Enron scandal. Further, Ms. Gunasekera represented clients in pro bono matters, including the successful defense of an individual seeking asylum and as guardian ad litem for three children.

Katherine M. Aizpuru

Partner

Katherine M. Aizpuru is a Partner in Tycko & Zavareei LLP's Washington, D.C. office. Her practice focuses on protecting consumers and whistleblowers from fraudulent and unfair practices. Ms. Aizpuru has fought predatory financial institutions and mortgage servicers that wrongfully took money from consumers, service providers that snuck junk fees into their invoices, and tech companies that violated user privacy. She has also represented whistleblowers who exposed illegal practices in the healthcare industry. Ms. Aizpuru has taken on some of the world's most prominent corporations and financial institutions and has recovered millions of dollars for consumers.

Before joining Tycko & Zavareei LLP as a partner in 2024, Ms. Aizpuru litigated on behalf of consumers in the Federal Trade Commission's Division of Financial Practices. There, she led the FTC's first ever case against a cryptocurrency company and its former executives. She also secured settlements that shut down a pair of student debt relief scams, required the defendants to turn over their assets—including personal bank accounts, vehicles, and properties—for consumer redress, and banned the principals from working in the debt relief industry. Ms. Aizpuru's other work at the FTC included investigations involving fair lending, dark patterns, and unfair and deceptive practices in the fintech and auto sales industries. Ms. Aizpuru also served as a trial attorney at the Department of Justice, where she represented federal agencies, such as the U.S. Section of the International Boundary and Water Commission, the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, and the Defense Health Agency, in complex litigation and bankruptcy proceedings.

Ms. Aizpuru was an associate at Tycko & Zavareei LLP from 2017 to 2021. She earned her law degree cum laude from Harvard Law School and clerked for the Honorable Catharine F. Easterly on the District of Columbia Court of Appeals and the Honorable Theodore D. Chuang on the U.S. District Court for the District of Maryland. Prior to law school, Ms. Aizpuru graduated with a Bachelor of Arts with High Honors from Swarthmore College.

F. Peter Silva II

Of Counsel

psilva@tzlegal.com

Peter Silva is a zealous advocate for consumers, workers, and individuals whose rights have been violated by the government, employers, and financial institutions. Over the last decade, Peter has successfully represented clients in civil rights, consumer protection, and foreclosure defense cases in negotiations, mediations, arbitrations, and at trial in state and federal courts and before various administrative agencies.

Prior to joining Tycko & Zavareei LLP, Peter represented individuals and small businesses as a Partner with Gowen Silva & Winograd, PLLC. Peter's work on behalf of Maryland, D.C., and Virginia homeowners has prevented dozens of foreclosures through loan modifications, settlements, and litigation. Peter not only defends foreclosures but countersues for violations of state and federal lending and servicing laws. Peter has successfully brought and defended lawsuits against America's biggest banks and mortgage servicers including Wells Fargo, Bank of America, U.S. Bank, Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac, Mr. Cooper/Nationstar Mortgage, Bayview Loan Servicing, and Ocwen Loan Servicing.

Through aggressive litigation and creative settlement solutions, Peter has obtained millions of dollars in damages and savings for his clients including principal and interest reductions, write-downs, and deficiency waivers. Peter's extensive knowledge of the foreclosure and loan modification processes, mortgage servicing industry and applicable state and federal laws including the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA) and Truth-in-Lending (TILA) allows him to provide clients with upfront and straightforward assessments of their options so that they can make an informed decision.

Peter has worked with local, state, and federal governments and non-profit entities to strengthen legal protections of consumers. Peter is a member of the National Association of Consumer Advocates.

At the beginning of his legal career, Peter worked extensively in the civil rights field as an attorney fellow for the Washington Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights and Urban Affairs, and a law clerk with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and the civil rights interest group, People for the American Way.

Of Counsel

wgriffith@tzlegal.com

Mr. Griffith is a graduate of the University of California, Berkeley and the University of Chicago Law School. After law school, Mr. Griffith spent a decade working at two of the nation's top defense firms, where he represented some of the world's largest companies in class actions, complex litigation, and regulatory matters.

Mr. Griffith now uses those same skills to advocate on behalf of his consumer clients. He is dedicated to tenaciously advancing his clients' interests through all phases of litigation, including trial and on appeal.

While Mr. Griffith's preference is always to litigate, he also knows that being an effective advocate sometimes means settling. Mr. Griffith has been involved with dozens of significant settlements over the course of his career, including settlements valued at over $100 million, and he has defended those settlements in parallel actions and on appeal.

Mr. Griffith maintains an active pro bono practice representing clients in civil rights cases. He serves on the pro bono panels for the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeal and the Eastern District of California, and was recognized in 2021 for his pro bono service to the Eastern District.

Mr. Griffith is a member of the California Bar and is admitted to practice in the U.S. District Courts for the Central, Eastern, Northern and Southern Districts of California, as well as the U.S. Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation and the U.S. Courts of Appeal for the Second, Ninth, and Eleventh Circuits.

Mr. Griffith is a member of the Advisory Board of the Legal Aid Foundation of Los Angeles, and he has been repeatedly recognized for his mentorship to junior attorneys.

When not practicing law, Mr. Griffith enjoys spending time with his toddler and wife and hiking in the Sierras with his dog.

Shana Khader

Of Counsel

skhader@tzlegal.com

Shana Khader is passionate about using the legal system creatively to challenge abuses of power and to seek justice on behalf of traditionally marginalized communities and poor people—even in hard cases. In the past several years, she has specialized in representing low-income immigrant workers in Texas. As Senior Managing Attorney at the Equal Justice Center and as Director of Legal Services at Workers Defense Project, Ms. Khader represented workers in challenging abusive employment practices through class and individual litigation, policy advocacy, and community organizing. She also has extensive experience working with survivors of sexual harassment and assault at work. She has obtained favorable decisions and verdicts on behalf of her clients in state and federal court.

Prior to moving to Texas, Ms. Khader served as a Kirkland & Ellis Public Service Fellow at the New York Legal Assistance Group, where she represented low-income New Yorkers who were victimized by unscrupulous debt collectors in courts throughout the city.

Ms. Khader graduated with academic honors from Columbia Law School. She served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Debra C. Freeman, Magistrate Judge in the Southern District of New York.

Ms. Khader served as a member of the Dallas Civil Service Board, has served as a board member of the DFW chapter of the National Employment Lawyers Association, and is an alumna of the Latino Center for Leadership Development Leadership Academy. She is fluent in Spanish.

Glenn Chappell

Of Counsel

gchappell@tzlegal.com

Glenn Chappell is Of Counsel in the Washington, D.C. office and is the chair of Tycko & Zavareei LLP's Appellate Practice Group. He works on class action and multidistrict matters involving consumer privacy, contract and insurance law, deceptive marketing, gaming addiction, and parental and child consumer rights.

Mr. Chappell has represented clients in numerous courts, including the United States Supreme Court, numerous federal circuit courts, and state appellate courts including the Supreme Court of Ohio, the North Carolina Court of Appeals, and the Louisiana Circuit Courts of Appeal. He has experience at every stage of pursuing and defending appeals, including oral argument, principal and amici brief writing, petitions for certiorari and interlocutory review, and motions practice. At the trial level, he plays a leading role in drafting and arguing dispositive motions, pursuing discovery, developing litigation strategy, and developing new cases.

Before joining Tycko & Zavareei, Mr. Chappell was an associate in the Washington, D.C. office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP, one of the nation's most prestigious defense-side firms. During his time at Gibson Dunn, he practiced in the firm's award-winning Appellate and Constitutional Law and Litigation practice groups. He also maintained an active pro bono practice that focused on police and sentencing reform.

Mr. Chappell graduated summa cum laude from Duke University School of Law in 2017, where he dedicated more than 450 hours to pro bono work and served as Managing Editor of the Duke Law Journal and Senior Research Editor of the Duke Law & Technology Review. After graduation, he clerked for the Honorable Gerald Bard Tjoflat of the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit and the Honorable Anthony J. Trenga of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. His legal scholarship has appeared in multiple publications, including the Duke Law Journal and the University of Richmond Law Review.

He graduated with honors from Saint Leo University, earning a Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration.

Cort Carlson is a Public Interest Fellow in the Oakland, California office. Mr. Carlson received his J.D. from University of California, Berkeley, School of Law in 2022, with a Public Interest & Social Justice Certificate. During law school, Mr. Carlson immersed himself in public interest scholarship and advocacy. Mr. Carlson completed a judicial externship with the Honorable Kimberly J. Mueller, Chief United States District Judge for the Eastern District of California, worked on whistleblower cases as a law clerk for a public interest plaintiff-side law firm in the Bay Area, and worked on cases involving unsafe and unfair housing conditions as an extern at the San Francisco City Attorney's Office. Mr. Carlson was twice elected to editor positions on the Ecology Law Quarterly, one of the nation's leading environmental law reviews, and served on the Berkeley Technology and Law Journal. Outside of school, Mr. Carlson served as a student advocate for incarcerated youth in collaboration with the Contra Costa County Public Defender and was a student researcher for the Brady Center to Prevent Gun Violence. Mr. Carlson also participated in a state and local impact litigation practicum in which he worked alongside current and former government attorneys on justice-oriented affirmative litigation projects.

Mr. Carlson received his B.A. Summa Cum Laude in Anthropology and English with a minor in Political Science from The George Washington University in 2019. Mr. Carlson traces his passion for public interest advocacy to early experiences working on issues that uniquely affect vulnerable communities, including poverty, incarceration, environmental harm, and personal data protection. Prior to law school, Mr. Carlson served as an academic tutor to persons pursuing higher education while incarcerated at Prince George's County Correctional Center in Maryland. Mr. Carlson also conducted research on people's perceptions and management of privacy on their cellular devices in collaboration with the GW Anthropology Department and the Smithsonian Institution.

Fellow

ecooper@tzlegal.com

Em Feder Cooper is a Public Interest Fellow in the Oakland, California office. She has dedicated much of her legal and public interest career to advancing gender justice. She started by doing reproductive justice legislative work at the New York City Council Women's Caucus. During law school, she volunteered with Sanctuary for Families to help women obtain uncontested divorces or temporary restraining orders. As a Law Clerk at the Equal Rights Advocates, Em focused on Title IX matters and prepared sexual assault survivors for their hearings. She also had the privilege of participating as a Student Advocate with New York Legal Aid Group's Pro Se Clinic at the Southern District of New York courthouse and was able to leverage her Spanish skills when assisting clients.

Em's legal research has focused on the legal implications of interstate distribution of medication abortion pills, intersectional sex- and race-based employment discrimination, and psychological trauma of workplace sexual harassment and the importance of expert witnesses. Thanks to her coursework on discrimination theory and law, Em is passionate about exposing unlawful harms perpetrated by cosmetics companies and amending the Federal Drug and Cosmetics Act of 1938.
